

Yone Jon Kriney

yone.kriney@gmail.com | Link to navigable HTML version of this resume

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Publishing Accessibility Fellow | Princeton University Press | July 2023 – July 2024

- Oversaw cross-departmental accessibility initiatives, advocacy, and working groups; wrote and implemented organizational accessibility policies and public accessibility statement.
- Project management in digital production, including designing plans and timelines; status and accessibility reporting; direct document production and remediation; alt text writing; metadata management; vendor communication, documentation, and review.
- Led internal accessibility training on web, word processor, video conferencing, and other digital accessibility best practices.
- Directly fielded accessibility inquiries and requests from readers, authors, and libraries; modified publications in compliance within and beyond standards to address individual needs and concerns.
- Read more about this work in Princeton University Press's feature on their 2023 fellows.

Accessible Digital Publishing Specialist | Freelance | May 2024 – Present

- Working directly with independent presses, artists, and journals to produce fully accessible digital publications using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, InDesign, and other tools. Ensure compliance with WCAG and EPUB standards and best practices, with WCAG 2.2 AAA always the goal.
- Provide detailed accessibility testing and reporting using manual review and accessibility testing software, ensure publications contain comprehensive and accurate metadata. Write alt text for images.
- Advocate for the benefits of accessible digital media with publishers and educate on how to include accessibility in their default workflows.

Museum Educator | Shofuso Japanese House and Garden | March 2023 – July 2023, July 2024 – December 2024

- Led interactive and detailed site educational tours and special programming with groups and individuals of all ages; fostered an accessible and inclusive educational environment for all visitors.

Exhibition & Archives Assistant | Japan America Society of Greater Philadelphia | March 2023 – October 2023

Project: Okaeri \(Welcome Home\): The Nisei Legacy at Shofuso

- Wrote interpretive and educational materials, developed community programming, designed main exhibition publication and managed design of on-site installation, developed and led staff curriculum training.
- Coordinated on-site multimedia accessibility standards and initiatives in public programming.

Exhibition Research Assistant | Collaborative Cataloging Japan | October 2023 – June 2024

Project: Community of Images: Japanese Moving Image Artists in the US

- Research project management and documentation; coordinated between institutions, artists, and curators to obtain materials and rights; performed independent archival and public programming research
- Consulted on gallery and web accessibility.

EDUCATION

Swarthmore College — B.A. in Mathematics, Architectural History, and Interpretation Theory

- Lib Lab Fellow, Web Accessibility Specialist; MakerSpace founding member; Kitao Art Gallery board

CERTIFICATIONS

IAAP CPACC — Certified Professional in Accessibility Core Competencies

SKILLS & PROFICIENCIES

- WCAG, EAA, ADA, Section 508, and EPUB accessibility standards
- Manual accessibility review; testing with screen readers and other tools; DAISY Ace
- HTML, XML, CSS, JavaScript; general web and mobile accessibility
- Accessible digital document production and remediation
- Adobe Creative Suite, Acrobat; accessible PDF creation and remediation
- Microsoft 365 and Google Workspace; accessibility in both
- Accessibility training and workshop production and leadership

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE & LEADERSHIP

Japanese American Citizens League

Board Member, Philadelphia Chapter, January 2024 – present

Ulis Project Space, Philadelphia

Panel speaker — On Access and Translation with Mortar Press

Penn Integrated Product Design Graduate Program

Guest Design Critic (recurring), Spring 2025 & 2026 — IPD5900: Escape the Algorithm

Volunteer Accessibility Work

Digital production, trainings, and consultation with disabled artists.